The notation includes various note values, rests, and dynamic markings such as 'p' (piano) and 'f' (forte). A double bar line is present, and the word 'ten' is written above the staff. The second system continues the notation and ends with the word 'Allegro' written in a larger, more decorative script. The third system starts with 'Parola.' and includes a double bar line. The fourth system begins with 'All.^o' (Allegretto) and a 2/4 time signature. The notation continues across several staves, ending with a double bar line. At the bottom of the page, there are three empty staves. The paper shows signs of age, including some staining and discoloration.

A handwritten musical score on five staves. The notation is in brown ink on aged, yellowish paper. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a common time signature (C). The music consists of a single melodic line with various note values, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. The second staff continues the melody with similar note values and rests. The third staff features a more complex rhythmic pattern with many beamed eighth and sixteenth notes. The fourth staff continues this complex pattern. The fifth staff concludes the piece with a few final notes and a double bar line. There are some faint markings and a small 'p' (piano) dynamic marking at the beginning of the first staff.
