SPECTACLES.—Eyesight.—Optical Improvement—to enable persons at an advanced age to read with ease, and discriminate objects with perfect distinctness. Messrs SOLOMON & CO. have invented and patented SPECTACLE LENSES of the greatest transparent power. The valuable advantage derived from this invention that of enabling persons of advanced age to read and see objects as enabled to do so by the young, and at the most minute occupation, can be seen with the lenses of a much less magnifying power.

and they do so, require the frequent changes to the dangerous effects of further powerful assistance. Persons can be suited at the most remote parts of the world, by sending a pair of spectacles, one of the glass in a letter, and stating the distance from the eyes the other will be sent by print with it. And those who have not made use of spectacles by stating their age—30, Albemarle-street, Piccadilly, opposite the York Hotel.

Glibbey, of 357, Oxford-street. We are thus enabled to correct some very erroneous impressions which have got abroad in respect these wines—namely, that they are themselves adulterated, and that they are used for adulteration. This is by no means the case, and, in some cases, of exceptional instances. On the contrary, we have proved these wines to be good genuine and wholesome, and their moderate price is a great recommendation."
