

Annie

Ayuntamiento de Madrid

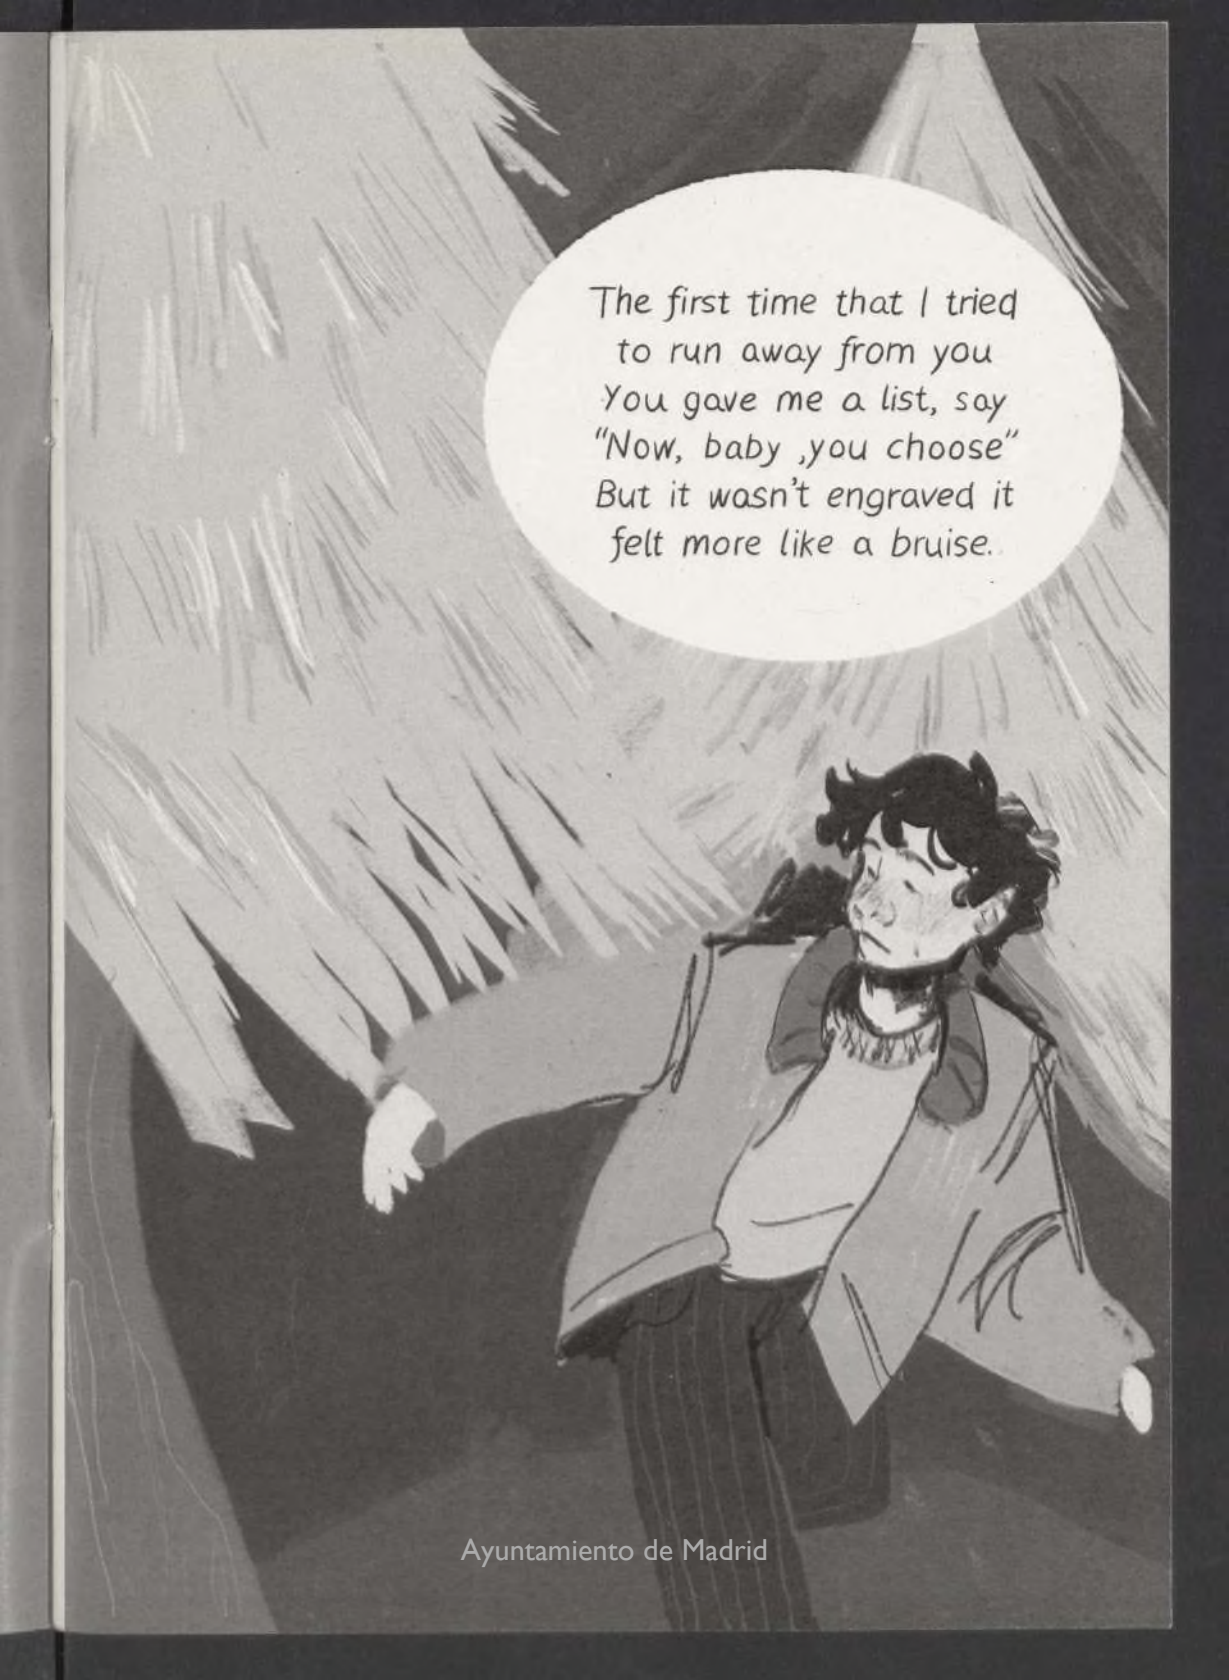

R.401851240

Ayuntamiento de Madrid

I thought this time I might just walk away from you

You were a thief, yeah, and I was the proof

But you don't ever cry, so no telling the truth

The first time that I tried to run away from you You gave me a list, say
"Now, baby ,you choose"
But it wasn't engraved it felt more like a bruise.

Oh, I wasn't ashamed then Of my degree
The fear that I once pay for now was free

But I wasn't afraid then, of who I become In a desperate vain attempt to talk to God
I saw, I saw

Now I'm the same, lost my degree and it paid for you

I was a liar!
I was stuck in the fog

Yeah and you were turned around, I was pretty much lost

I'm the first of four that tried to cast away from you

Into the dark,
you were a spear

I was holding your head ,you were watching me kneel

- I was barely born then,

I was hardly evolved

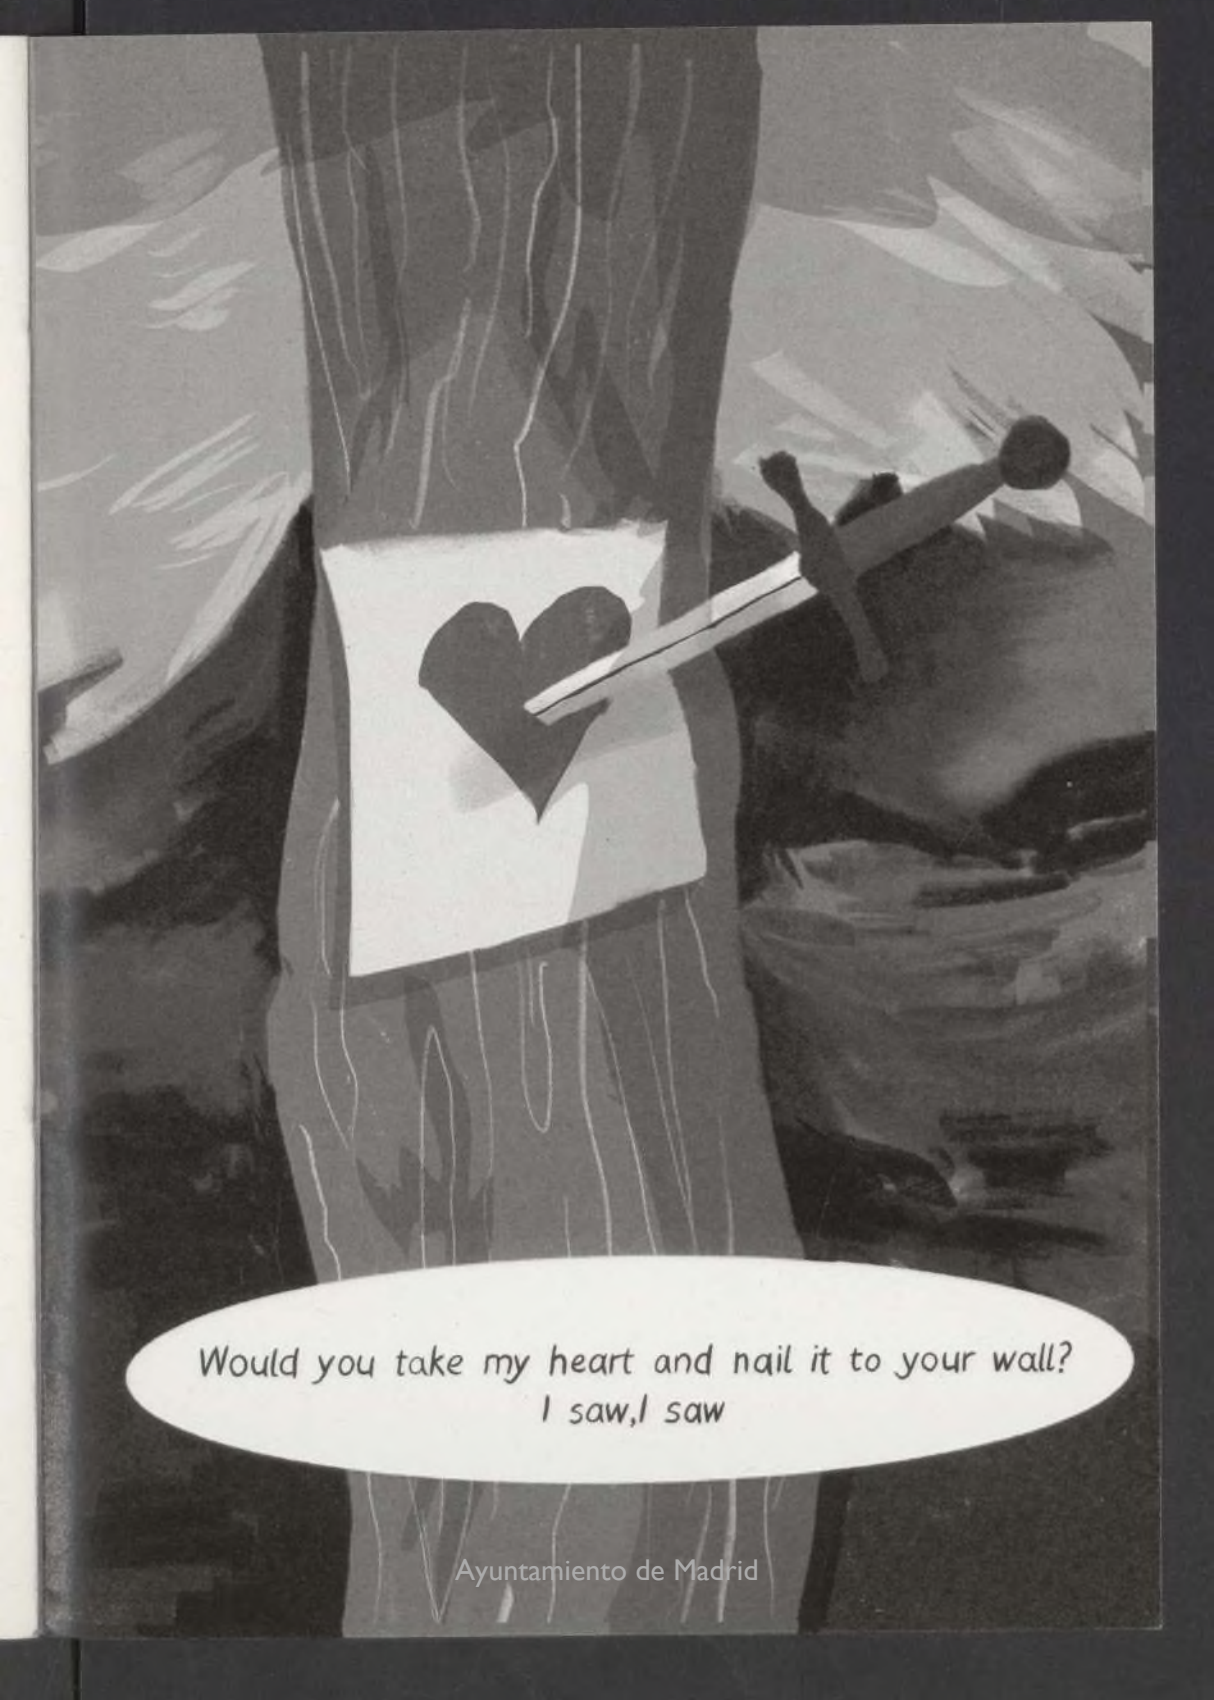

I was pacing back and forth to calm the squall

So, I ran out of reasons, of places to fall

Ayuntamiento de Madrid

Would you take my heart and nail it to your wall?
I saw, I saw

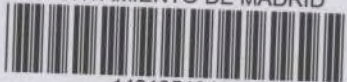

Ayuntamiento de Madrid

Ayuntamiento de Madrid

AYUNTAMIENTO DE MADRID

1401851240

Inspired by the song "Annie" made by Manchester Orchestra from their album
The Million Masks of God

Drawings by Luca Nuñez
Lopez