

A vintage black and white photograph with a white border and deckle edges. It depicts three young girls standing in a row on a light-colored, possibly paved or sandy, path. The girls are dressed in dark, knee-length dresses. The girl on the left is holding a small object, possibly a bag or a book. The girl in the middle is looking towards the camera. The girl on the right is also looking towards the camera. Behind them is a large, dark, multi-story building with many windows, partially obscured by trees. The scene is brightly lit, casting long shadows of the girls onto the path. The overall tone is historical and documentary.
